THE EAST SIDE

Series of Robberies Are Charged to William and Shad Seago.

Sheriff Cosmos Keller and Deputy Sheriff William Powers returned to Jerseyville yestarday, having in custody William Seago, whom they arrested in the Plasa Bottoms. Seago was arrested on the charge of theft. For several weeks property and provisions of various kinds have been missing from the farmhouses in that section, and a few days ago the butcher shop at Elsah was entered and quite a quantity of meat taken, Some of the property that was alleged to have been stolen was found in Seago's house. Seago, however, claims that he knows nothing of the ownership of the goods, which, he also claims, had been left at his house by his brother. Shad Seago, whom Sheriff Keller arrested on Thursday at Girard on the charge of larceny.

Both brothers are now in the Jersey County Jail. William Seago will be given a hearing on Monday before Justice A. H. Quinn. The authorities at Jerseyville state that a number of other important arrests are likely to be made in this connection within a few days.

Drunkards Easily Cured

Miss Mary Roberts Wants Every Lady

Used an Odorless and Tasteless Remdy in His Food, Quickly Curing Him Without His Knowledge.

Free to Show How Easy It Is to Cure Drunkards.

The terrible evil of drunkenness has at last found a conquerer. Miss Mary Rob-erts, of 1932 Golden Gate Ave., San Fran-cisco, Cal., tells how she saved her brother cisco, Cal., tells how she saved her brother from ruin, and her words burn with a new hope to every woman who would rescue a son, brother or husband from the scourge of drunkenness. She says:

"Yes, it is true that my brother is now a reformed man. For years he drank only occasionally, but at last he got so had that to be sober neemed a living death to him. After a spree he would tremble and shake and act as if he were going insane. He would then drink sparingly, but in a few days would start off again and I wouldn't see him for a week. I saw a notice in our home paper that there was a remedy called Golden Specific to be given secretly in tea. coffee or soft food, and that they would send me a free trial. I wrote for it and gave it to my brother early one morning in a cup of coffee before he had a chance to go cut and get a drink. The effect was wonderful and seemed to brace him up. He went out and came back quite sober for him. In the meantime I had sent for a resular treatment of Golden Specific, and, after using it, my brother was a changed man. Day after day I watched and prayed, and it all seemed too good to be true. His whole manner changed. I said nothing about the remedy I had been giving him secretly and did not talk of his being cured, but I would often tell him how happy I was and what a noble man he was to stop drinking. He, of course, knows it all now, but his new life, prosperity, new friends and self-respect have long ago forgiven me for the way in which I saved him from a drunkard's grave. May every mother, sister or daughter learn from my experience is my devout hope, and in thus making public the story of our private misfortune and subsequent blessings it is my earnest desire that every woman read in my words the way to happiness, not only for herself but for the man who is strugging with the curse of liquor upon him. Dr. Haines, who discovered Golden Specific, is deserving of woman's homage, and I am giad to know that he will send a free trial of the remedy to every woman who writes him.

Edwardsville Notes.

A petition filed in the office of the Circuit Cirk of Mathson County at Edwardsville peterday reveals the fact that an Altan lady has just discovered that she has no legal right to the name which she has borns and by which she has been known for the past twenty-six years. Ars. Caroline C. Walta is the petitioner. She alleges that she has resided in Alton for forry-four years and that she was married to the late cosme! John H. Kohn on November Ir. 1854. Mr. Kulm died October 20, 180, and on March 41, 188, his widow was married to John L. Walta. The second marriage proved unfortunate, and on March 20, 1875, she was granted a diverse in the Circuit Court. Mrs. Waltar states that she had asked her lawyer to petition for a restoration of the name of Kuhn, and that she suppessed when the divorce was granted that this had been done. She resumed the name of her former husband, who was a greatly respected resident of the Right City, and was so known to be friends. It was not until a few days ago that she discovered that the decree of diverce of a quarter-century are did not include authority for the change of name, and she accordingly petitions for the latter.

Chris H. Kuchnemann, Recorder of Deeds of Madison County, has just completed the first year of his occupancy of the office, and his departies have prepared a statement showing the business of the year, as compared with previous opes. A year ngo the duty of recording deeds was divided from the court work of the Church Cherk, and a separatic office established. During the year there were filed in the Recorder's office 4.250 instruments, as against 1.85 for the previous year, a gain of 1.65. The anniversary of his installation into the office was also Mr. Kuennemann's birthday anniversary, and the occasion was celebrated by a theater party to the Olympic, to witness 'Den-Hur.'

—George Kneedler of Collinsville, a member of one of the oidest families in Madison County, died this week at the poor farm in Edwardsville, aged 82. He had been an inmate of the place for nearly two years. Mr. Kneedler his three sons, all grown men. One of them, William Kneedler, came over from Collinsville and attended the burial at the county farm, but showed no interest when informed that the body would be intered in potter's field, and allowed it to be laid to rest in the public's pauper graveyard.

—Proceedings in the Circuit Court at Edwardsville were delayed yesterday by Paul Seeller of Collinsville, one of the jurymen. He startes from Collinsville on the first electric car at 520 in the morning, but a mishap prevented his making the trip. Having been instructed the evening hefore to be on hand promptly at 9 o'clock, he went to East St. Leuis, but missed all of the morning trains. He televraphed Julige Schaefer of his predictment, and stated that he would get there as soon as possible. Seeliger natived at 1220, after having gone around by way of Alton.

FINED FOR SHIPPING QUAIL

If Prosecution Were Pressed, Penalties Might Amount to $18,000. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Mount Vernon, Ill., Dec. 7 .- George S. Clark of Thompsonville, who was arrested here last Saturday on a charge of shipping quail, was fined 50 and costs by Esquire Crosler. A trunk supposed to belong to Clark contained 521 quail. The trunk and contents were seized by means of a search warrant and Clark is liable to be held for the remaining 519 birds, as he was only charged in this case with having two birds

If fined for each bird, he might, if the naximum fine be imposed, be liable for penalties aggregating $13,000, besides the conviction fee of the State Attorney, which might be $5$ in each case. There would be in addition the other costs of the prosecution a grand total of about $15,000.

The organization of the Beaumont Oil Transporation Company, which was brought about by a number of Southern oil companies operating at Beaumont, has proven a success. It is understood that Bouthern capitalists have made application for much more than the entire capital stock. Augustus A. Coleman, Judge of the Circuit Court of Alabama, president of one of the oil companies that has contracted with the Transportation Company for the sale of its oil, expects to have his company on a dividend-paying basis within three months.
